

July 4, 1865

Nearly all the townspeople in BOALSBURG, Pennsylvania turned out at the cemetery to decorate graves. The minister gave a sermon, and the event turned into an annual affair.